

As a globally successful high-tech company, Spectra-Physics develops and produces ultrafast laser systems. At its facility in Rankweil the company makes highly developed and individually adjusted picosecond and femtosecond lasers, which are used in demanding fields such as eye surgery and implant production. For our continued successful growth we are strengthening our international team with immediate effect by a

SITE CONTROLLER & FINANCIAL LEAD (f/m)

The role will require a seasoned professional capable of serving as a strategic business partner to the Operations Management across the Austrian sites, providing meaningful financial analysis in support of corporate and functional objectives as well as leading and overseeing the financial operations in Austria.

Job description and responsibilities:

- Oversee, direct and develop internal and external financial reporting systems
- Lead all costing activities for factory, including annual standard setting, review variances
- Drive an annual planning & quarterly forecast processes across the site to provide analytical insight, assess risks, and help guide decision-making
- Develop, analyze, and interpret financial information to support Operations Management, Business Unit Management and Corporate Finance
- Be responsible for all timely and accurate submission of financial results and forecasts into our Hyperion Financial Management (HFM) system
- Supervise site accounting teams
- Support Corporate Finance in various projects as needed

What you can expect:

- State-of-the-art high-tech infrastructure
- Flexible working hours
- Cooperation and mutual support in a strong and innovative team
- The salary will be in excess of the min. KV remuneration and take into account qualification, training and the labor market in Vorarlberg

Competences:

- University degree in Accounting/Finance, or in a related business field
- 10-15 years of progressive division/operations finance experience, including at least 5 in a leadership role
- Experience in a Manufacturing environment
- Strong computer skills including knowledge of financial applications and ERP systems, particularly SAP and Hyperion (HFM). Proficiency in Word, Excel, and PowerPoint
- Very strong drive, dedication and ability to prioritize and manage multiple responsibilities concurrently
- Excellent team player, ability to interface and communicate effectively
- Strong organization and problem-solving skills
- Ability to travel internationally up to 25%

Interested?

Please send your application documents via email to Birgit Ragger (jobs@spectra-physics.at).
Tel. +43 5522 82646 182

Spectra-Physics Rankweil
Feldgut 9
6830 Rankweil